SUBJECT: CIA Image -- University of Washington, Seattle, Washington

1. I recently was given a formal printed copy of the University of Washington Senate Bulletin No. 172 covering the Senate meeting of 13 Apr 67. Under an item entitled "Faculty Council on Faculty Affairs" as reported by Kenneth M. McCaffree, Chairman and concurrently Associate Professor, Economics, there appeared some statements that caused me some concern. At the conclusion of McCaffree's report appears the following:

"The work of the Council comes in an unending stream. There are a number of major matters still before it. In brief summary, these include:

Items 1-4 Not related to Subject

Item 5 Review of the role, status and function of the R.O.T.C. on the University of Washington campus.

Item 6 Consideration of the influences of the Central Intelligence Agency at the University of Washington.

The last two items are being considered simultaneously by other Councils [Committees] and it is expected that where necessary, joint efforts may be undertaken and the work of the Councils involved will be coordinated."

2. I made a concerted effort to determine [redacted] who the members of the committees were who are considering Item 6. I was not successful and reached the point where I would have had to go to the Senate President for the information. Since we have had no previous contact with the President of the Senate I decided that I would talk with [redacted] about this matter. The gist of his counsel follows:
